Performance of Public Sector Undertakings

640. SHRI VIREN J. SHAH : Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) what steps have so far been taken by Government to upgrade the technical expertise to make MOU negotiations with Public Sector Enterprises more effective as promised in the Industrial Policy Statement of July, 1992; and

(b) to what extent these measures have helped in improving the functioning of the Public Sector Enterprises ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (DEPARTMENT OF HEAVY INDUSTRY AND DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC ENTERPRISES) (SHRI P. K. THUNGON) : (a) A two-way exchange of officers between. Public Sector Enterprises and Government Departments with a view to upgrade the technical expertise to make Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) negotiation and implementation more effective is under active consideration of the Government. Training programmes on Memoranda of Understandings in collaboration with this Department have also been organised with a view to upgrade technical skills on both sides—Government Departments and the Public Sector Enterprises.

(b) It is too early to come to any definite conclusion on the effect of training programmes on the participants with respect to upgradation of their technical skills. However, it is noticed that Memorandum of Understandings (MOU) negotiations between the Ministries and the Public Sector Enterprises are smoother.

Performance of Public Sector Undertakings

641. SHRI VIREN J. SHAH : Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that MOU is an instrument for improving the perfor-mance of the Public Sector Undertakings;

(b) if so, to what extent their penor-uiance has improved during each of the last three years; and

(c) what are the reasons for deteriora tion in the performance of Public Enter prises during 1991-92 as compared to 1989-90 in terms of return on capital in vested ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE. IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (DEPART MENT OF HEAVY INDUSTRY AND DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC ENTER-PRISES) (SHRI P. K. THUNGON) : (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The performance grading of the PSEs that entered into MOUs during 1989-90 and 1990-91 reveals that 8 out of 17 PSEs in 1989-90 and 15 out of 23 PSEs in 1990-91 attained "excellent" MOU scores thereby exceeding the targets set for them in the MOUs during the respective years. As per the MOU scores for 1991-92. 27 out of 55 MOU signing PSEs who have furnished their scores so far have been provisionally rated as '"Excellent". MOU scores for 1991-92 have not yet been finalised but would form part of the forthcoming Public Enterprises Surney 1991-92 to be placed in the Parliament at the commencement of the ensuing Budget session.

(c) The performance data of public enterprises as a whole for the year 1991-92 is still under compilation. However, there might have been some deterioration in the performance in certain sectors. Each sector has different reasons for such fall in the return on investments. Some of the general reasons are sharp increase in raw material costs, non-availability of raw materials, lack of fresh orders, heavy interest burden, power failure, low productivity, foreign exchange loss due to devaluation of the rupee, etc.
